"Timber Expert"

Welcome Message

With the remarkable brand value built in the decorative and architectural wood coatings field in the past 50 years, we are aiming to leave a heritage of green forests and habitable cities to the coming generations by achieving the more efficient utilization of wood as a renewable material through the use of technology.

HEMEL was established in 1966 as a Turkish-British partnership. Since its foundation, HEMEL's area of expertise has been decay and insect protection of wood and the supply of wood paints and varnish systems. Having celebrated the 50th anniversary of its establishment in 2016 with its wood preservatives, interior and exterior wood paint and varnish products, HEMEL is today the sector leader in the wood preservation industry known for its innovative technology products. With its sales and marketing activities together with its technical consultancy in most significant projects in Turkey, HEMEL contributes added value to the sector and also exports its products to countries such as the Netherlands, UK, Singapore, Brazil, Azerbaijan, Iran, Cyprus and Bulgaria. Since 2012, HEMEL has worked in partnership with the Swiss Company Lonza and continues its R&D investments in the wood products industry to offer environment and human friendly green products for the future.

Why Environmentally Friendly?

IN OUR 52
YEARS

number of trees we have assisted to save

309.818.692

At 15.000 km/year per car and 2,5 trees
needed to clean the CO₂ emission of each car,

we have assisted in the cleaning of

123.927.477

cars' CO₂ emission.

With the trees saved in 52 years and assuming 740 kg oxygen consumption per person,
we provided the oxygen needs of 44.259.813

people.

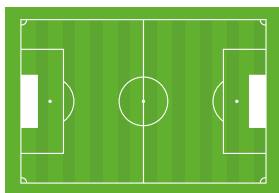

If all trees saved within the past 52 years were planted every 2 meters, they would cover an area of

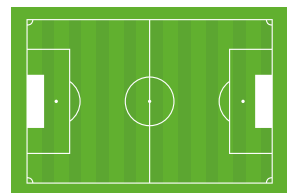

1.223.370.945,71m²

This area would be equal to:

360 Central Park.

191.152
football stadiums
